

The Field of Dreams

Randy Maugans

Baseball and metaphysics ...what's not to like...?

In the 1989 motion picture, "Field of Dreams", Kevin Costner played a novice Iowa farmer who began to hear A voice tell him, "If you build it, he will come", and he is shown a vision of a baseball field. After plowing his corn field under and building the field, Ray, played by Costner and his wife, Annie (played by Amy Madigan), wait an entire year...and NOTHING happens.

After that year, Ray's daughter Karin, witnesses a a ball player on the field, whom Ray identifies as "Shoeless Joe Jackson" (an actual major league ball player from the early 20th century, who played for the Phila. Athletics, and Cleveland, eventually traded to the Chicago Whites Sox and was implicated in a scandal to fix games, called the "Black Sox Scandal"...the guy still holds major league records, including the third highest career batting record in history...in 1911 this guy batted .408...he was a role model for Babe Ruth)...enough baseball trivia.

Ray, under pressure from his "practical" brother-in-law to replant his corn field, hears the voice again...saying "ease his pain..." Ray decides the "he" is a reclusive author and activist from the 1960s, named Terence Mann (James Earl Jones), who wrote that as a child he dreamed of playing with the Dodgers at Ebbets Field. Short story: Ray goes to Boston, finds Mann, and they go to Fenway Park for an Oakland A's vs. Red Sox game, where Ray hears "the voice" again: "Go the distance..." Then, looking at the scoreboard, Ray sees a statistic for a 1922 baseball player named Archibald "Moonlight" Graham (Burt Lancaster), who played the majors for the NY Giants, but never got a turn at bat. Mann denies seeing the "vision" on the scoreboard, but later recants to Ray...and the two are off to Minnesota to find Graham...if you haven't seen the film...go rent it...it's timeless...and truly a wonderful "fantasy" baseball game...

What does a 1989 baseball movie have to do with us...The Threshing Floor...or spirituality? It's all in the metaphor. The "field" of field of dreams is a metaphor for some concepts I want to start to unwind....

Is it possible that we, here in 2011...quickly moving into 2012...face serious challenges? I think as we've seen so far this year, there are tremendous events happening: earth changes, global revolution, wars, wars, more wars, rumors of wars, spiking energy and food prices...and a humanity in...PERPLEXITY. The more we try to be practical...the more we try to keep our cornfields growing...the more we hone to the day to day rhythms of a world clearly gone mad...it seems some of us are hearing, "If you build it HE will come"...It all seems so impractical..."build what?"..."He who?"...Is what you are hearing in the Spirit (you ARE hearing, aren't you?) impractical? Are you feeling torn by the demands of daily existence and the call of something "higher"...maybe some think you to be "mad?"

I have talked about the "shift" for a year now, and we have been ticking steadily through a whole series of landmarks...the days really ARE getting shorter, as I noted in a recent blog post: the Japan earthquake shortened the length of the Earth's day by a fraction, and shifted the distribution of the planet's mass..it doesn't sound like much, but we are having swarms of quakes all over the planet...100s...and another MAJOR quake to come this year! What if these quakes continue altering the space-time realm?

The shift in humans is another fascinating phenomenon: the prophetic is supposed to rally people to where the LORD is going; BUT, my observation is that most people in the religious folds, are going where RELIGION is going...where religion always goes: back to the vomit. Back to the same-old-same-old, the comfortable, the known...and God has been saying that He will NOT fill old wineskins with new wine!

Some people are going BACK to the churches...some are returning to relationships that suck their energy...marriages that force compromise...work that entails staying in the system...some back to the cold dead religion that was put there as a way to keep you from knowing WHO you are...and the voice was saying: "go the distance..."

I clearly heard the Lord tell me a year ago to prepare for radical changes. I don't think you really can fully prepare for what the Creator of All has in mind. My personal shift surprised ME! When God tells you that you are too religious; when He says that the "old wineskin" is something comfortable...like our Bible studies, or our prayer methods, or the way we view HIM...when God says, "YOU have been in control long enough! Give it up!" When you follow the Lamb, and the Lamb takes a sharp right at 90 MPH...and you're eating dust...whoooh!

Then, God says, "You have too many people..." like He told Gideon...and He tells you to begin doing shows that completely upend the ministry...telling people that their BIBLES are IDOLS! When you just know you are being pruned down to the shoots and a stem...people, God means business. He is tired of religion...so tired He will offend you to get your attention. So sick that He will seemingly upturn the very foundations which we all thought HE erected...but, really...it was us...God is doing business on Earth, and it is a sorry situation.

And like Ray in "Field of Dreams", we begin to hear voices saying the MOST INSANE things. Plow up the cornfield and build a ball field! Do you know what a field of corn costs to grow these days? Dig it UP! NOW! Why? Because your Father wants to have visitation with you (if you have seen the film, you will get the connection...if not...watch the movie...with "prophetic eyes"...).

Jesus told us a similar story...Jesus wrote great scripts...the Savior, Yeshua, warned us about what happens when OUR ambitions...our plans...our puny goals...get in the way of HIS divine plans---the LORD wrote about what to build, what to plan, and what to give up in obedience to HIM (and, really, obedience is secondary...what He wants is PURPOSEFUL LOVE toward His will)...Let's look at Yeshua's script for "Field of Dreams":

Luke 12:15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

What is God saying to YOU? Is it practical? Is it comfortable? Does it “fit” your religious structure and what you have been told by the “system”...or is it uncomfortable, impractical, and perhaps “odd.” Maybe you even have some of “Job’s friends” hanging around...you know these guys: they loved you when you told them all the things they wanted to hear...a little ear-tickling...a little “Bible Prophecy”, a little about how THEY are OK and those other morons were to get creamed.

When times were good and we could comfortably sit about with our Bibles spouting off erudite predictions and parsing verses...and pretending we knew how to pray...in our religious structures crafted from the splinters of our old church world...and we were the “remnant in the wilderness” and we played the game...and NOW, it’s getting harder. It’s gonna cost something. And it is going to be what we did not expect it to be...Are you ready to HEAR...and are you ready to MOVE?

The Field

The last show, “The Person of the Holy Spirit”, felt like the sound of one hand clapping. I know a few did get it...others...well, they went away...or argued from their own perspective. I didn’t do that show to be provocative...those notes were on my desk for six months! I did not want to do that show. But God said: “Go the distance...” The Father is tired of waiting for religions to own up to their deceptions. They took the corporate deal...they never got far from the Vatican, or the Crowns of Europe. America is a harlot...squandering the early beginnings for the role of the army of the beast...now it’s a monster and will not obey, as John Kaye of Steppenwolf once sang.

America sent a gospel to the world in the form of the nuclear bomb...America sent the gospel of the IMF and the World Bank, with fiat currencies and loans to enslave third world nations and steal their resources...America sent the gospel of abortion and genocide, degenerate sexual practices, and the religion of “self”...America is the “field” where the tares have overtaken the wheat and God says, “cut it down...”

In August of 2009, when I did the show "At The Threshold", and I started getting this concept of "The Still"...I did not know what it meant then. The shows started to turn---I knew God wanted to show me some depth...the stuff religion would never allow. It’s a simple concept on the surface, but we are all so involved in our clamorous day to day lives we never grasp it...that we need to go still...we need to go deep.

Then when I did the show, "The Walls Will Be Empty Before The War", I got it again:

“The WORD will be within you and it will purified and quickened to the Sword of the Holy One. Fewer words...more dwelling in the Still. Within the Still lies Wisdom, which moves timeless and without warning. They which rely on the outer clamor will see only perplexity.”

God was saying it louder, now. The religious Christians say the Bible is the WORD of God...and God was telling me that the WORD is within us. As I dove deeper into this concept it became clear what was corrupt: the Biblical Christianity with sanitized Bibles, and the mindset that everything outside the PERCEPTION of that book was EVIL. Meanwhile, I am starting to get things I can't locate in the 66 books.

As result of doing the Exotica shows...now renamed "Off Planet Radio"...I was presented with some material that forced me to look at the universe, the creation...the "stuff" of our being that looked like what we would call "gnostic", "new agey" ... but the concept of the Still became more real!

God was showing me this for 18 months---before I delved into the concepts of quantum physics seriously. I wish I had a language to make all this simple...the religious are NOT going to get this because they speak a different language and they are stuck in Biblese. 6

A correction: opening the Holy Spirit show I mis v-stated that God is PART of a force...God IS a force field...sometimes when we talk, we make statements that are inaccurate, so a correction:

GOD is the unified field...we are all parts of the field which is connected back to God. But...we need to conform ourselves to the IMAGE of Creator Of All... This is why the Christ came...to show us HOW. Failing to heed that pattern...of divine love..agape...continuing in the pattern of the world...we will be "deleted"...cast into the "hell" of the universe which yields to entropy and collapse. Make no mistake that I believe there is ONE WAY BACK...it is through the Christ, Yeshua and what He taught and lived.

What my friend, Ronnie, calls the Christ Force is really the manifestation of the field where we come into knowing...once we know, the lid is off! That is why there is so much warfare in this thing...I am getting hit physically now...what if this is all concealed from the religions because Satan is the head of the religions?

What if the scriptures were altered to hide these things..

Gospel of Thomas:

"The kingdom is like a person who had a treasure hidden in his field but did not know it. 2) And [when] he died, he left it to his [son]. The son [did] not know about it. He took over [51] the field and sold it. 3) The buyer went plowing, [discovered] the treasure, and began to lend money at interest to whomever he wished."187

Proverbs 2:1-5

- 1 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;
- 2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;
- 3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; {lifest...: Heb. givest thy voice}
- 4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;
- 5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

, Matt. 13:44-44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

What if...what if the KNOWLEDGE of the things of the kingdom are now in possession of the "dark side"? The gnostics, new agers, pagans...and you were left with a Bible (approved, mind you, by the kings of this world...AUTHORIZED by the Romans from Constantine the whole way down to Pope Benedict). Some of you scoff...you sneer...you say: that is not possible. But---do you not know the axiom that the winner of a conflict re-writes the HISTORY? Did you not see the rottenness of the political structures? Did you not learn that your religious systems were corrupted? You spent years...and even now, you MOURN over those caught in the false theological structures...but you hold on with white knuckles to that Bible that was assembled by the same "kings of this present world..."? It is time to WAKE UP!

You may want to take a look at this:

Isaiah 45:1 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut; {have...: or, strengthened}

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

.Now, some more the prophecies start to make sense...even the 144,000 take on a new dimension. I have always thought that the 144,000 are a mystical key...Sue always thought it was literal and connected to the religious system...Zionism, the Vatican...the multitudes who do not know the truth. All of that is true. BUT---144,000 is really a divine number: 12 squared---the foundations of the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21). Being sealed in their "foreheads"? The pineal gland? 12 is the number of divine government...12 tribes, twelve apostles...the 12 constellations of the heavens---the zodiac (no, not astrology...astronomy...? Maybe all those cosmic symbolism in Revelation are literal?

The Quantum

Then I began to delve deeper into the quantum...quantum physics. But really, the word physics is redundant:

a quantum (plural: quanta) is the minimum amount of any physical entity involved in an interaction. Behind this, one finds the fundamental notion that a physical property may be "quantized," referred to as "the hypothesis of quantization".^[1] This means that the magnitude can take on only certain discrete values. There is a related term of quantum number. An example of an entity that is quantized is the energy transfer of elementary particles of matter (called fermions) and of photons and other sub-atomic particles.

A photon is a single quantum of light, and is referred to as a "light quantum". The energy of an electron bound to an atom (at rest) is said to be quantized, which results in the stability of atoms, and of matter in general.

As incorporated into the theory of quantum mechanics, this is regarded by physicists as part of the fundamental framework for understanding and describing nature at the infinitesimal level.

What occurs in the realm of physics, when the quantum is recognized is that science, with all the elegant theorems and mathematical equations...rooted in Plato, Archimedes, Newton, and ...later Einstein bumps into something it cannot quantify...basically, it bumped into GOD.

The Non-Locality Principle of quantum physics was experimentally proven in 1982 by Alain Aspect and his research team at the University of Paris' Institute of Theoretical and Applied Optics in France. This principle states that space and time do not really exist at the level and particles. Moreover, they proved the violation of the inequality of John Bell and finally solved the Einstein / Poldowsky / Rosen paradox.

This means that Einstein had been completely wrong in refuting the quantum mechanics Non-Locality Principle. This could have happened quite possibly because he had problems conceptualizing its extraordinary implications upon our so-called material world and the nature of reality.

In layman terms, this means that Einstein erred greatly in his widely accepted assumption that speeds faster than light were impossible and that space and time did not operate at the quantum level (particle level). By extension we can say that it seems that our phenomenal world is, in reality, supported by an indivisible reality, non-local (at that level space does not exist), and non-subject to the restrictions of time (time does not seem to have any meaning at that level).

This is equivalent to saying that no element, whether alive or inanimate, in this universe is separate from another. However, at the level of individual perceptions of reality it certainly seems to be so! This correlates strongly with the Holographic Model of the Universe that the physicist David Bohm postulated as an explanation for the paradoxes that quantum physics raises.

David Bohm is, until today, considered to be one of the greatest theoretical quantum physicists. He was one of the Einstein's preferred students at Princeton University and was a part of the development team for the "Manhattan Project", developing the American atomic bomb during WWII. Bohm was puzzled by physical phenomenon such as the "Quantum-Tunneling Effect" which is at the base of the semi-conductor theory which birthed the creation of transistors, microchips, Josephson junctions in Super-Computers and many more. The Quantum Tunneling Effect states that a particle such as an electron seems to "know beforehand" if a barrier that it will encounter is strong enough to repulse it back. If the barrier is weak, the particle literally "vanishes" (dematerializes) before encountering the obstacle and ematerializes" on the other side of the barrier.

Quantum physics suggests that our universe is non-local and infinitely interconnected at some deeper level of reality. If it is so, instead of reality. If it is so, instead of viewing a particle as a material object traveling through space, it may be better to view it as something that unfolds out of a deeper level of reality. Bohm drew this conclusion from the Hologram model and coined the "Implicate Order". This order states that there is a gigantic multidimensional holographic reality that exists outside of the realm of space and time which is made up of vibratory light carrying information.

The "Implicate Order" (or you can also call it the "web of life") is where all possibilities are and time / space has no meaning. The "Implicate Order" keeps on projecting onto the consciousness witnessing the explicate world what we perceive as reality in a step-by-step fashion.

After each unfolding, there is an enfolding back onto the "Implicate Order" (while the sentient unit of mind become unconscious again) and the fetching of additional pieces of information that will unfold back holographically to the same unit of consciousness (as that unit becomes aware i:e conscious again of the next step of the show of Creation)

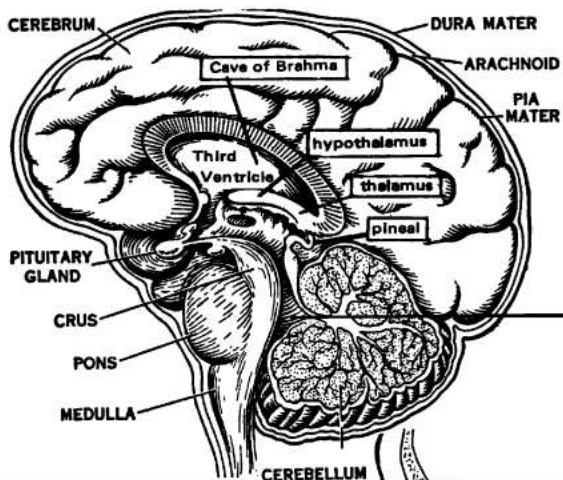

So that in effect, what a unit of consciousness considers a flow of situations is but a succession of discontinuous sensory imagery being projected on-and-off to an entity. Therefore, all an entity is, is a processor of information filtered through his senses that it translates as its reality.

That allows him/her to act upon (co-create) it by choosing the next step. If we accept that reality, at the macroscopic level, is discontinuous under the illusion of continuity, it would explain why in quantum physics, according to the "uncertainty principle", only the location of a particle at the microscopic level can, at any point, be precisely described but that its real trajectory cannot be known and remains “fuzzy”.

The Point?

What am I getting at? In analogy...this FIELD, what we call the human consciousness...mirrors the field of the universe itself. Our basic science in school trained us to view matter as solids, liquids, gases...molecules, and sub-atomic particles...and everything else as a “vacuum” We were told that our brains were the location of our mind...our mental processes. But, in fact, this new science of quantum...the field...and the non-locality principle of Alain Aspect, propose what the mystics, gurus, and holy men taught for thousands of years.

The Pineal Gland:

<http://www.celtoslavica.de/bibliothek/electricity.html>

Wrap-up:

Back, for a moment to the field of dreams...this is all analogs and metaphors...we're going somewhere, and it is all about how science...this quantum...is leading us back to the Creator.

We Are The Future:

As modern science has recently realized but not yet quite understood, there is a delay of roughly 500 milliseconds between the beginning of the pattern of firing of neurons in the brain consecutive to an event and an individual's awareness of the situation that caused this firing. There is a short exposition of this little understood but irrevocably proven neuro-physiological paradox discovered by Benjamin Libet: This means everything we perceive in our reality has in fact been projected to our brain as a future holographic reality roughly one half second before it is perceived a material reality/action by the individual . Take for instance the example of a baseball that is thrown at a batter by a major league pitcher. We know from measurements that the baseball crosses the plate in less than a half second. According to 20 years of neuro-electrical research the batter could not possibly be aware that the ball ever left the pitcher when he bats it back. Nevertheless he does it successfully 30 percent of the time.

Put another way: you become aware of an event 500ms to 1 second after the initial event (real stimulus). However, it seems that from some unconscious level of yourself the decision is taken, before that interval of time necessary for you to become aware of the event, and to act.

The field...the quanta...is the timeless dimension where all events paly out. We live in the future realm, our bodies are guided by that consciousness which is outside the space-time dimension. We are "the future"...we live there beyond ou physical being's limitations. In effect, we are in the eternal...NOW.

The fraud of Darwinism, which de-humanized man, and eliminated GOD, cannot withstand the onslaught of data that has poured out laboratories of multiple disciplines since the 1970s. The Field, a truth that opens up not just new understandings of our universe, our bodies, our relation to the physical domain; now leads us back to the Father.

And that was the point of "Field of Dreams"...the ball-players, the cornfield, the quest that the "voice" and the vision sent Ray on...to "go the distance", to "ease his pain"...it was ALL about Ray's FATHER...it is a metaphor of this quest we are on...right now...it is mystical, it is metaphysical, it is scientific, and it is SPIRITUAL...it is ALL about how we re-capture KNOWLEDGE...and that knowledge is to lead us BACK...to the Father! This is the Threshing floor...the truth is out there, it is inside you...
